LUCAL MATTERS.

The Great Salt-Work's Case.

PRESTON VS. STURAT AND OTHERS-THE DE-CISION OF THE LOWER COURT UNANIMOUSLY AFFIRMED BY THE COURT OF APPEALS.

The Court of Appeals yesterday decided the case of Preston vs. Stuart et als., from the Circuit Court of Wythe county. The case involved the title to the Salt-Works in Wythe county, now owned by Stuart, Bu-Robert Gibbony, trustee in a deed made by Preston to him, conveying this and all the rest of his property to secure all of his creditors. The sale was made by Gibbony privately, as authorized by the deed, and long after the sale and confirmation by Preston, the grantor in the deed, and after Gibaside the sale to Stuart & Company on seve- canal company upon its location west of to jail for six months, with labor. ral grounds-among them that of fraud, want of power to sell, collusion between the trustee and the purchaser. The Court held that the trustee and purchaser acted pro-sale to Stuart & Company. The appellant, Thomas L. Preston, was Buchanan and Clifton-Forge Railway Comthe owner of what is called the "Preston pany for which this company has subscribed. Salt-Works estate," in Smyth county, Va., and of some interest in what is called the "King Salt-Works estate," in the adjacent county of Washington. In the year 1859, being greatly embarrassed with debt, he conveyed this property, with a large number of slaves and other property, to Robert Gibbony, of Wythe county, Va., in trust, to sell the property either publicly or prilar amount of its third-mortgage bonds as bony (the trustee) on the 10th of June, 1862, made a private sale of the "Preston mortgage bonds for $125,000 of bonds of reputation honestly earned on two conti-Salt-Works" and a portion of the grantor's said city. But this suggestion of the maninterest in the King estate to Stuart, Pal- ner in which the aid of the city of Richmer & Parker at the price of $425,000. The mond may be asked shall not be considered greater portion of the purchase-money was as restrictive or as a prohibition to such collected and applied by the trustee to the other arrangement as the Board may effect purposes of the trust. Gibbony died in with said city in furtherance of the comple-1867, and in 1870 Preston filed his bill in this case to set aside the sale and to hold the purchasers of the property liable for rents, profits, &c.

The main grounds on which the complainant based his claim to relief were, first, want of power in the trustee to make the sale; second, fraud and collusion between the trustee and purchasers; third, breach of trust in various particulars.

The case was heard before Judge James Keith, of the Fauquier circuit, at Wytheville, in the year 1874, and at the hearing he dismissed the complainant's bill.

From this decree Preston took an appeal to the Supreme Court of Appeals. The case was argued in this court several years ago before three judges, and while the case was under advisement Judge Bouldin (one of the three judges) died, and Judge Burks having been elected to fill the vacancy on the bench created by the death of Judge Bouldin, the case, at the commencement of the present term, was reargued before Judges Moncure, Christian, and Burks, the other two judges not sitting.

The Court of Appeals unanimously affirmed Judge Keith's decision, holding: 1. That the trusteee had full power under the deed to make the sale. 2. That there was no fraud, either actual or constructive. in the sale. 3. That there was no breach of trust. 4. That the sale was valid; but if Board of Directors. for any cause it was voidable, that it had grantor in the deed.

The case was ably argued by Hon. J. of this city, and Mr. N. H. Massie, of Charlottesville, for the appellant, and by Senator John W. Johnston and David S. Peirce, Esq., for the appellees. The argument lasted five days.

The opinion of the Court, delivered by Judge Moncure, is said to have been very able, clear, and forcible.

The record in the case was voluminous embracing upwards of 900 pages of printed matter; and the printed briefs of counsel contain 400 or 500 pages. Since the commencement of this suit, in 1870, four of the eminent counsel engaged in it-to wit, Hon. John B. Baldwin, of Staunton; James W. Sheffey, of Smyth county; Beverly R. Johnston and Joseph T. Campbell, of Abingdon; and one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals (Wood Bouldin)-have

Personal.-George S. Bernard, Esq., just elected to the Legislature from Petersburg, was the Chesterfield referee in the late contest between the city and the county. He is also well-known to the Elliott Grays as a Traumbilder," by the orchestra, intro- gallant member of Mahone's old brigade, and to others from his frequent visits to our courts. William Reese, the member-elect from Greensville, is also favorably known in Manchester, where he has many triends.

The Mayor pro tem. - When a vacancy accurs in the office of Mayor, or he is absent at any time, the duties of the office, with the exception of holding the Police Court, devolves upon the president of the City Council. The Mayor's Court can be held by any justice, although that courtesy is generally extended to the senior justice, and after him to the others according to the date of their commissions. The duties of by Justice James M. Perdue. There is no

HEYWOOD BROTHERS' COMBINATION,
FROM BOSTON. ORGANIZED IN 1862.
COMIC OPERA AND REFINED MINSTRELSY.
SUPERB ORCHESTRA AND BRASS BAND.
The success of the HEYWOOD BROTHERS appears rather surprising, especially as they were "strangers in these parts." The HEYWOODS show superior judgment in combining "nexro minstrelsy "with other specialies and new designs of the stage.—Council Blufs Globe.

The company is made up of good material, and the members gave a varied and highly-amusing entertainment; and when they come again this New-England organization will be greeted with a great cordiality for what they have already done as well as that they have given evidence of what they are competent to do.—Kansas City Natus.
